

Consumer & Collection Insights

A comprehensive employment history search right at your fingertips

The collection industry's most comprehensive, accurate and convenient data source for place of employment reporting.

Available:  Web Based  Batch  API

What does it do?

Leverages a unique combination of data to accurately identify the current employment history of an Individual.

Data sources include consumer lending applications, bank headers, Connect alternative credit history data, and compiled third party data sources.

Report contains:

- Current and historical employment history (up to 6 employers)
- Employer names
- Employer phone numbers
- Complete employer addresses
- Phone status indicator
- First report date
- Last report date

What is it used for?

Used to locate a place of employment for an individual that will help collection professional save time and money during the collection process.

